Make it Official. Be One!

The Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association, Inc. is experiencing a shortage of sport officials. If you are at least 18 years of age and/or a high school graduate, have a basic knowledge of sports and are physically fit, you can become a PIAA registered sports official. Experience the thrill of officiating interscholastic contests while giving something back to our young people and to your community. The PIAA needs men and women like you! For more information, or to request an application, call or write the PIAA.
